

Use these signs in combination with the Shiny Happy Houses quilt pattern to make a fun North Pole scene!

Happy quilting!

HAVE FUN!

I recommend using a solid color fabric for the background of the signs - it will make the letters show up better.

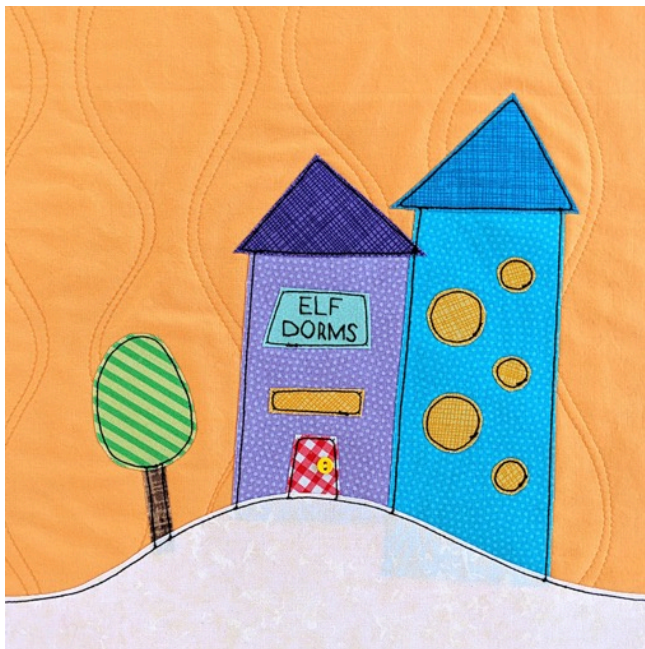

Trace or print the signs (including the words) onto paper-backed fusible adhesive.

Roughly cut out each sign, then fuse it to the back of your fabric.

Hold the sign up to the light (I just put it in a window) and the letters will show right through. Trace over the letters using a waterproof pen. (I use a fine-point black Sharpie - nothing fancy.)

Cut out the sign neatly, fuse it in place, and outline stitch around it.

If you like, stitch over the letters using backstitch. I like the way the hand-stitching looks, but you can also just leave the marker lettering as-is. :-)

BRAG A LITTLE!

Or a lot. :-) Pat yourself on the back! Call everyone you know! Take photos and share them with the world! Definitely share your photos with the awesome folks in the Shiny Happy People group on Facebook. :-) Tag me on Instagram with @wendigratz or use the hashtag #shinyhappyworld. I hope you had fun!
